CUSTOMER GRIEVANCES REDRESSAL POLICY

This Policy of GP Parsik Sahakari Bank Ltd. is framed and same is duly approved and reviewed by the Board of Directors in its Meeting dated 23rdFebruary, 2026 vide Resolution No7(3.7)

INTRODUCTION:

The co-operative Banks are set up for satisfying the financial needs of masses in the society. These banks are set up for local people by the local people. Banking is the service industry and customer is the centre of business of these banks. In the competitive age, survival of co-operative Banks is much dependent on degree of quality of customer service rendered by co-operative banks. High degree of customer satisfaction will enable the banks to maintain its image, create confidence and attract funds at low cost consequently to achieve the business goals and reputation. The Goiporia Committee on customer service recommended the guidelines for the customer service. A satisfied customer will spread good word about the Bank with two customers, but a dissatisfied customer will spread word with ten customers resulting harmful to the image of the Bank. The Bank should have mechanism to resolve consumer grievance, if arose during the course of business of the banks. The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has also issued guidelines through circulars on customer services on various occasions.

OBJECTIVES:

1. To observe the guidelines issued by RBI on customer service and render the qualitative customer service
2. To address the grievance of the customer of the bank.
3. To evaluate the grievance without prejudice
4. To provide remedy / solution to the grievance to the best possible extent.

SCOPE:

- a) The Policy covers resolution of all complaints raised by customers on account of system intricacies, banking procedures, gaps in customer service, service charges etc. Redressal machinery is also applicable to complaints raised on account of credit information of customers.

- b) The Policy is based on principles of transparency and fairness in the treatment of customers. It is designed to cover deficiency in service by the employees and the bank will ensure that customer's grievances will be addressed and resolved properly, expeditiously and effectively.

DEFINITION OF QUERY, REQUEST AND COMPLAINT:-

Customers or Non Customers may approach the Bank for various reasons which inter-alia include Enquiry/Clarifications regarding the services given by the Bank, process or products of the Bank, request to avail any service/ product, or to raise a grievance regarding deficiency in service of the Bank. GRIEVANCE REDRESS DAY:-

As per RBI circular CO.CEPD.PRS.NO.S1409/13-01-017/2024-2025 dated March13, 2025.

- 3rd Saturday of every month to be observed as “Grievance Redress Day” in every Branch wherein the aggrieved customer can walk in to the Branches of the Bank without any prior appointment to share their Grievances with a designated Branch Manager / Officiating Branch Manager or Assistant to Branch Manager in each Branch. Branch will follow our Bank’s “Customer Grievances Redressal Policy.
- If the 3rd Saturday happens to be a Bank Holiday, then previous working day will be considered as a “Grievance Redressal day”.
- Legal Department shall place the Statement of Complaint on Quarterly basis, before the Board which covers the important parameter including the number of Grievances received and resolved by Bank over a period of time from all channels including their own portal / complaint management system etc.

Number of cases where appeals have been filed Turn Around Time (TAT) taken for Grievance resolution, and cases in which time lines, whether Regulatory or Internal, have not been adhered to..

- Analysis and Measures for resolution of Grievances as “Annexure A”
- Number of Complaints from all sources for the period 01.04.2024 to 31.03.2025 as “Annexure B”
- Analysis of Complaints received. as Annexure “C”.
- Measures To Ensure Timely and Quality Disposal Of Grievances as “Annexure D”

As per RBI circular CEPD.CO.PRS/S 1214/20.56.001/2024-25dated December26, 2024.

- According to this circular a robust grievance redressal mechanism is vital in ensuring that Bank maintain customer trust, meet regulatory requirements and improve service quality. On the basis of grievances received by the Banking sector, a “Root Cause Analysis” has been conducted to understand the nature of complaints received and examine the underlying causes of such complaints. Some common grounds of complaints relate to deficiency in customer service, retirement / pension payment, frauds / digital payments, debit card, levy of charges, loans and fair practices, harassment for recovery of loans, etc.
- RBI through its guidelines provide guidance to the Bank for taking pro active measures to pre-empt such complaints and for taking Corrective action. It is observed that despite having and elaborate internal grievance redress framework at the Bank, including the internal ombudsman (IO) mechanism, grievances continue to arise on account of issues which are systematic in nature and can be prevented through protective measures.
- Bank should adhere to the guidelines issued in the Master direction – RBI (Internal Ombudsman for REs) Direction, 2023, wherein the IO is required to conduct analysis of the Complaint received and furnish the same to the committee of the Board.
- Legal Department have gone through the Root Cause Analysis of each complaint as per “Annexure E” and advise the respective department / officials regarding deficiencies.
- Department shall place the Statement of Complaints on Quarterly basis, before the Board which covers the Root Cause Analysis of the complaints and protective measures to pre-empt such complaints.

- If the Branch Manager / Asst. to Branch Manager is not in a position to resolve the complaint within given time frame to the satisfaction of the customer, then the Branch manager will facilitate the customer to escalate his complaint and make him available following:
- The Branch manager will make appropriate arrangement to submit the complaint suggestion in a specified format as per Annexure I.
- The Branch Manager will give the customer an acknowledgement of his complaint suggestion.
- The Branch Manager will make him available the name, phone number and address of Nodal Officer and also Banking Ombudsman of the area.
- If the Branch Manager feels that it is not possible to solve the problem at his/her level then he/she will refer the complaint to the Nodal Officer for guidance and necessary action under advice to the customer.

BANKING OMBUDSMAN:-

Banking Ombudsman is the well-known quasi-judicial authority established with an aim to address and resolve complaints of the Bank's customers. On November 12th 2021, RBI integrated three Ombudsman systems namely, (i) the Banking Ombudsman Scheme, 2006; (ii) the Ombudsman Scheme for Non-Banking Financial Companies, 2018; and (iii) the Ombudsman Scheme for Digital Transactions, 2019 and introduced - Integrated Ombudsman Scheme, 2021. The said Integrated Ombudsman Scheme, 2021 adopted the 'One Nation, One Ombudsman' strategy for grievance redressal. The objective of the Scheme is to resolve the customer grievances involving 'deficiency in service' on part of the Bank in a speedy, cost-effective and satisfactory manner. Ombudsman is an appellate body where customers can escalate complaints if the Bank fails to address the complaint within 30 days. To file a complaint, you must have first approached your bank and either received no reply within one month, a rejection, or are dissatisfied with the bank's response.
